Message from Jim...

Good morning, church, welcome to worship! We hope this morning's worship is encouraging, uplifting and draws you closer to God as we also continue to practice safety precautions in our surroundings to keep everyone safe and well. This morning, we are pleased to have our Sunday morning Bible classes resume in a somewhat limited format. Please note on the inside of this bulletin a list of the classes which are resuming. This will include all of our Children's classes and several of our Adult classes with the exception of an attended nursery. The nursery is open for parents' use only, but is not attended.

This is also our interns last Sunday to serve as interns. We would like to thank Peyton and Erin for all their hard work this Summer. There are money trees set up in the Fellowship Hall for each of them this morning.

This evening, many of our Service groups will be meeting as well as the 5pm group which meets in the auditorium. Guests, we thank you for being with us and hope to have an opportunity to visit with you further! God bless, Jim
