In Sight - Jim Black

"Let us fix our eyes on Jesus"

I am super excited to be starting this new year and starting a new theme for the church. Last week I kicked off our new theme with a lesson, "A Church Growing for Him" and laid out some specific objectives for us. We want to be a church which is growing spiritually, relationally, physically and outwardly. To do that we need every member committed to four things: (1) being here in worship, (2) participating in a small group Bible study, (3) serving in a ministry and (4) passing along your faith to someone new. If every one of us committed ourselves to those four practices, this church will be strengthened and increase our kingdom impact! Beginning in February our Sunday evenings will transition to a new format to encourage everyone to be apart of a smaller 'service group'. These groups will enable us to increase in our relationships while also looking for ways to impact our community in greater ways!
